Eligible sub-divided unit (SDU) households without individual HK Electric's tariff meters may apply for a subsidy of HK$1,000 per household per year.

Eligibility

- The SDU is located in HK Electric's supply territory and is not installed with an individual HK Electric's tariff meter; and
- The applicant must be a member of the household residing in the SDU; and
- The applicant is a Senior Citizen Card holder or the household is facing financial difficulties as recommended by the assessment centre.

Required Documents for Verification

- HKID Card/Passport; and
- Documentary proof of tenant agreement or the rental payment receipt within recent 3 months of the date of application; and
- Senior Citizen Card (if applicable); and
- Documentary proof stating applicant's sole-name Hong Kong Dollar saving/current local bank account number (copy of this proof must be submitted together with the completed application form).

Procedures

Application form can be obtained at the assessment centres or downloaded from HK Electric's website.

1 Submit application in person at the assessment centre together with corresponding documents for verification.

2 Assessment centre to confirm the information of the applicant and refer eligible application to HK Electric for vetting.

3 HK Electric to vet and approve application, and release subsidy to the designated bank account of the successful applicant.
